CHURCH COUNCIL HEARS DR. GEORG MICHAELIS Former German Chancellor Grateful for Sympathy.

Dr. Georg Michaelis, former Char cellor of Germany, was received as the guest of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America at the nittee yesterday afternoon. Chan cellor Michaelis is president of the Student Christian Federation of Ger-many, and it was as such that he was especially welcomed. In addressing the representatives of thirty denominations constituting the council Dr. Michaelis said:

"I appreciate more than I can say the worth of your greetings. It wil be a source of great encouragement to Christians of Germany to know that we can Join together in facing the fuchristians of Germany to know that we can join together in facing the future.

"We are living in Germany in a hard time. The situation appears to be very dark—so dark that I do not know what I shall find when I get back home after an absence of nearly six months.

"I have just come from an international conference in China—the meeting of the World Student Christian Federation, which brought together representatives of the Christian force, from all over the world; thirty-three nations, representing all races. This meeting gave me an insight into the possibility of the fellowship of the Christian churches of all nations and made me feel that the great opportunity for the future lies in the development of this spirit of unity."

Dr. Kobert E. Speer, the president of the council, who presided, responded and stated the churches of America well-come cooperation of German churches for abolition of war and building of a better world.

NEW PLAY FOR HAMPDEN.

Walter Hampden, having completed ils first transcontinental tour in Shakes pearean repertoire, announced yesterday pearean repertoire, announced yesterday his plans for next season. In addition to his classical repertoire he will present a new modern drama entitled "The Black Flag."

This play, which was written by A. E. Thomas, is described as a fantastic comedy drama, with an element of romance, requiring an unusual mise en scene. Because of the success of his portrayal of "Othello," which he presented in the large cities of the middle West and the Pacific coast last season, he will place it at the head of his classic repertoire for next fall.
